Clash of the Carolinas Participants & Fans:

On behalf of the North Carolina Soccer Coaches Association, we would like to welcome you to the 11th annual Clash of the Carolinas at Wake Med Soccer Park in Cary, NC. In an effort to make this event possible, many people have contributed their support. The NCSCA would first like to recognize the North Carolina Coaches Association and North Carolina High School Athletic Association for making this a sanctioned event.

Thank you to the Town of Cary, for providing both practices and game fields.

Thank you to the official uniform supplier for this event BSN of North Carolina (Charlie Ashby) and South Carolina (Troy Carroll).

Thanks to Joe Crump and Brine for providing game and training balls for the event. Brine is the official ball supplier of the Clash of the Carolinas and the North Carolina Soccer Coaches Association.

Thank you to Kevin and Kyle Heise, the SC coordinators for this event, and the South Carolina High School Soccer Coaches Association for helping make this event a memorable one for all of the participants involved. The NCSCA cannot thank them enough for donating their time to make this event a special one for all of the student-athletes and coaches.

Again, thanks to all sponsors of The Clash of the Carolinas, your generosity makes our event the best it can be.

Thanks,

Gregg George
Granville Central High School
NC Coordinator - Clash of the Carolinas

South Carolina High School Soccer Coaches Association

June 16, 2017

Dear Clash of the Carolinas Participants & Supporters:

It is my honor to welcome you to the 11th Annual Clash of the Carolinas all-star game. As the nation's only interstate prep all-star soccer event, the Clash has evolved into one of the premier high school sporting contests in the country.

On behalf of the S.C. High School Soccer Coaches Association (SCHSSCA), I would like to extend our sincere gratitude to our principal financial sponsor for this year's event, First Citizens Bank for their generous support of our SC teams. In addition, the SCHSSCA would like to recognize the contributions of Lloyd's Soccer for the Sandlappers NIKE apparel.

A special thanks to the North Carolina Soccer Coaches Association's Gregg George and Doug Kidd for their work behind the scenes to make this event a reality. This is the second consecutive year the Clash has been held in the Tar Heel State after nine years at Daniel Island, S.C.

Finally, I would like to thank my predecessor in this role, Wayne Quinlan, for his vision to initiate this all-star event more than a decade ago.

Sincerely,

Kyle Heise

North Carolina sweeps South Carolina in high school soccer to claim 2016 Clash of the Carolinas

July 10, 2016 - Kyle Heise, SCSoccer.com

RALEIGH, NC – The Tar Heels continued their mastery of its southern neighbors as North Carolina swept the Sandlappers 3-1 and 4-3 in the girls and boys matches, respectively, at Cardinal Gibbons High School in the 10th annual Clash of the Carolinas. This was the first time that North Carolina hosted the event which has been held at Daniel Island since 2007. NC now leads the girls series 7-1-2 and 6-1-3 in the boys ledger.

In the girls match, North Carolina opened the scoring in the seventh minute when Christina Shimshock of A.C. Reynolds took a shot from 15 yards away that deflected past S.C. goalkeeper Lauren Karinshak of Wando HS who collected eight saves on 17 Tar Heel shots in the contest. Fuquay-Varina's Megan Greene notched a goal in the 50th minute and then Abby Givens, the N.C. Most Valuable Player, tallied the third score on an assist from Baley Edwards of E.A. Laney in the 67th minute. South Carolina avoided the shutout when Fort Dorchester's Caitlyn Reilly, who also earned MVP honors for the Sandlappers, registered a goal one minute from time. SC's lone victory came in 2008.

shots. Marco Garcia-Rodriguez of South Mecklenburg HS scored on a beautiful free kick from 24 yards away after the Tar Heels were fouled in the fifth minute. Carter Phillips of Dixon HS extended the lead to 2-0 in the 11th minute and Statesville's Jason Rosales pushed the score line to 3-0 one minute later. Though down and shell-shocked, the Sandlappers battled back as Connor Deany of River Bluff slotted home a nice setup by Nation Ford's Kevin Garces on 17 minutes. Just moments later Jeremy Cheeks of Airport HS saw home a double-assist by Deany and Dreher's Cole Gaston on an indirect kick that turned the momentum for the Sandlappers. However, a controversial goal by Phillips on the stroke of halftime proved to be the difference in the final outcome. As a shot by Garces inside the Tar Heels' box apparently hit a North Carolina defender's hand and shout of "hand ball" echoed around CGHS Stadium, the referee allowed play to continue and the counter-attack resulted in a deflected shot that hit the post and toed the line as a SC player tried to clear it but the stadium-side assistant referee raised his flag and signaled for the goal. Despite the commotion and confusion the goal stood and NC led 4-2 at intermission. SC pulled within one goal in the 55th minute when Ben Freiburger of River Bluff knocked in a loose ball that setup for a full-tilt final 20 minutes. The Tar Heels withstood the Sandlappers' rally and North Carolina reeled off its sixth consecutive victory. NC goalkeeper Erick Cortez-Martinez of North Forsyth and Garces earned MVP honors.
